

Horror

The institute

by Stephen King

An abducted youth is imprisoned in an inescapable institute, where teens with psychic abilities are subjected to torturous manipulation.

Bird box

by Josh Malerman

In a world where no one can go outside for fear of something terrifying that when seen drives people to deadly violence, single mother Malorie and her two children must attempt a terrifying twenty-mile trip downriver while blindfolded.

World War Z : An Oral History of the Zombie War

by Max Brooks

An account of the decade-long conflict between humankind and hordes of the predatory undead is told from the perspective of dozens of survivors who describe in their own words the epic human battle for survival.

The inside-out man

by Fred Strydom

Down-on-his-luck jazz pianist Bent finds himself pushed to the brink of insanity as he spends his days in a mansion at the behest of its wealthy owner, who has locked himself in a small room for a year to explore the margins of his mind.

The vampire chronicles collection

by Anne Rice

The first three novels in the best-selling Vampire Chronicles-- Interview with the Vampire, The Vampire Lestat, and The Queen of the Damned--capture the dark and seductive world of the undead.

The Montauk monster

by Hunter Shea

In Montauk, New York, terrible monsters emerge from the sea every night, infecting the populace with a grotesque flesh-eating virus.

The fireman

by Joe Hill

When a bizarre virulent plague breaks out, causing victims to spontaneously combust, a dedicated nurse resolves to survive until her baby is born and receives protection from a mysterious infected man who uses his fire symptoms to help others.

A people's history of the vampire uprising

by Raymond A. Villareal

A pandemic virus stemming from a bizarre blood-solidifying mystery transforms victims into beautiful vampire-like beings who rise to prominence in all aspects of society, before one runs for political office.

Long Beach Public Library

111 West Park Ave

Long Beach, New York 11561 | (516) 350-5394

www.longbeachlibrary.org