Clock dance

by Anne Tyler

A lifetime of painful milestones and fading grandchild prospects compel a woman to help her son's ex and her young daughter. This impulsive decision will lead Willa to find solace and fulfillment in unexpected places.

Eight Cousins

by Louisa May Alcott

For fans of Little Women, a similarly stirring novel that follows the childhood and young adulthood of Rose Campbell, the sole female child born to her extended family.

Last one home

by Debbie Macomber

Traces the reunion of three disparate sisters, one responsible, one rebellious and one free-spirited, who reveal imperfections in their respective lives while mourning their mother's death.

Two by two

by Nicholas Sparks

The seemingly charmed life of a Charlotte family man abruptly tumbles around him. But with the loyal support of his parents and older sister and in the hard-won lessons of fatherhood, he will finally come to understand the true nature of unconditional love—that it is a treasure to be bestowed, never

The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society

by Mary Ann Shaffer

In 1946, Juliet Ashton finds inspiration for her next book in her correspondence with a native of Guernsey and his eccentric friends, who tell her about their island, the books they love, German occupation, and the Guernsey

Night of miracles

by Elizabeth Berg

Three disparate people discover the power of community in complicated choices and uncertain futures. The feel-good book of the year: a delightful novel of friendship, community, and the way small acts of kindness can change your life

Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society.

At home in Mitford

by Jan Karon

It's easy to feel at home in Mitford. In these high, green hills, the air is pure, the village is charming, and the people are generally lovable. A rich comedy about ordinary people and their ordinary lives.

Welcome to the Pine Away Motel and Cabins

by Katarina Bivald

A charming tale of a ramshackle roadside motel: a heartwarming story of love, friendship, community, and the art of living, even when it's already too late.
