Anyone but you by Jennifer Crusie

After unsuccessfully diving back into the dating pool, forty-year-old divorcee Nina Askew finally realizes what Fred, her newly acquired canine companion, has known all along, that her downstairs neighbor, a gorgeous, much-younger E.R. doctor, is perfect for her.

The notebook by Nicholas Sparks

In a testimony to the lasting power of love, a man tells an elderly woman a story from a faded old notebook, his voice relating the heartbreaking tale of two lovers and their fifty-year journey to happiness.

Ellen Foster by Kaye Gibbons

After the death of her mother, an eleven-year-old girl finds that life with her father is too dangerous and tries to find a new home. Her courage, her humor, and her wisdom are unforgettable as she tells her own story with stunning honesty and insight.

Jim the boy by Tony Earley

The old-fashioned story of a boy named Jim growing up in North Carolina during the Depression with his mother and three uncles perfectly captures the innocence, wonder, and confusion of childhood.

The No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency by Alexander McCall Smith

Working in Gaborone, Botswana, Precious Ramotswa investigates several local mysteries, including a search for a missing boy and the case of the clinic doctor with different personalities for different days of the week.

On Chesil Beach by Ian McEwan

Recently married, a young couple--Florence, a talented musician and shy daughter of an aloof Oxford academic and a successful businessman, and Edward, an earnest history student with little experience of women--looks forward to the future, but cannot help but worry about their upcoming wedding night.

Girl with a pearl earring by Tracy Chevalier

A poor seventeenth-century servant girl knows her place in the household of the painter Johannes Vermeer, but when he begins to paint her, nasty whispers and rumors circulate throughout the town.

Every heart a doorway by Seanan McGuire

What do kids do after their adventure? Sometimes they find each other. A love letter to anyone who's ever felt out of place.
